Providence, Rhode Island, the only U.S. city to be named one of the "Top Ten Up-and-Coming Travel Destinations" by The Wall Street Journal, combines the accessibility and friendliness of a small town with the culture and sophistication of a big city. With a thriving arts community, vibrant and diverse neighborhoods and a renowned restaurant scene, Providence is the perfect place to visit. The city's compact size and convenient location make it easy to get to and hard to forget. Historic and hip, sophisticated and small-town, Providence packs the best of New England into one convenient and colorful package, and the city is offering WomansDay.com readers a package designed specifically for them.

The Providence Biltmore Hotel offers the ultimate in luxury and comfort. Opened in 1922, it was designed to re-create the high standards of living enjoyed at the Vanderbilt Biltmore Estate in North Carolina. Superbly restored and impeccably furnished, the Providence Biltmore is the Crown Jewel of America's foremost Renaissance City. The hotel is centrally located in downtown Providence within walking distance of the business, historical, governmental and cultural communities, and adjacent to the Rhode Island Convention Center and Providence Place Mall. Newport, Cape Cod, Boston, Mystic Seaport, Old Sturbridge Village and Foxwoods, Mohegan Sun and Twin River Casinos are less than one travel hour away, and a visitor information center and both Budget and Avis car rental agencies are located just steps from their door.

Returning to cofounder Bill McCormick's hometown, McCormick & Schmick's Seafood Restaurant is located in the historic Biltmore Hotel. Their sterling reputation and high customer loyalty comes from their commitment to provide a delicious, relaxing meal with impeccable service and meticulous attention to detail. They are open every day for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Their menu is printed twice each day to accommodate over 30 fresh seafood selections from around the world. McCormick & Schmick's also offers a selection of local fare, including Matunuck Oysters and Block Island Swordfish. For the non-seafood diner, they have poultry and beef specialties, as well as tempting pasta dishes. Save room for one of their decadent desserts!

Visit the lively bar, where their bartenders practice traditional mixology. Ask for one of their hand-shaken cocktails made with freshly squeezed juices. Or, enjoy an assortment of imported, domestic and craft beers, as well as premium wines and liquors. During Happy Hour, ask about the popular bar menu that features selected menu items for only $1.95. Oyster Night (including local oysters) is held every Tuesday from 11 a.m. to 12 a.m.!

Escape through the Red Door for an hour, an afternoon or an entire day of total personal pampering. Located in the heart of downtown Providence, the Elizabeth Arden Red Door Spa offers a diverse and comprehensive menu of salon and spa services, from signature skincare, massage and body treatments to nail care, hair design, makeup artistry and more. A leader in the industry, Red Door Spas is committed to enhancing the lives of their guests through beauty, harmony and well-being...and is the ongoing vision of day-spa pioneer Elizabeth Arden. Her fundamental belief that beauty should be an intelligent union of nature and science to develop one's finest natural assets is carried out through their innovative treatments and quality services, with scientifically proven and advanced ingredients. Sophistication. Service. Serenity. It's all inside the Red Door.

Providence, Rhode Island, just won high marks in Travel & Leisure magazine's 2009 visitors survey of America's Favorite Cities, finishing in the top 10 for categories such as the style and intelligence of its people and especially for amenities like its theaters and T.F. Green Airport.
