made for you

In a world of fast food and one-size-fits-all sensibilities, how often does something feel made especially for you? The “Made for You” section celebrates those items that are created with such high quality of hand workmanship and degree of customization that they become individual to you. In each issue, our editors will endeavor to bring you special things from anywhere on the globe, choosing them solely on the basis of outstanding quality. Our goal is to give you guidance on the best of everything.

1 GETTING SHIRTY—TIMOTHY EVEREST

The East End of London's most renowned tailor brings some undercover (under cuffs and under collars) contrasting zest to the traditional bespoke dress shirt. Checks, paisleys and Spitalfields flower patterns all adorn the inner details with robust color. The shirts are semifitted and tailor hemmed with pearl buttons and the (Duke of) Kent collar for wear with or without a tie. Personal touches like choosing fabrics, edge stitching, darts, pleats, plackets, hanger loops, collar and cuff styles come with the made-to-measure service. ## 2 TIE ONE ON—BEAU TIES LTD. OF VERMONT

Between its selection of fabric (even two fabrics to a tie), the myriad patterns available (stripes, florals, paisleys, plaids, as well as solids for that matter), the many themes (from the Kentucky Derby to Batman, not to mention sailing and fishing and pianos and something called Mad Scientist) and the traditional old-school ties, you'd be hard-pressed to think of a tie that Beau Ties Ltd. of Vermont doesn't offer. And if you did, they'd probably create it for you. beautiesltd.com

3 CRISIS HANKY—TURNBULL & ASSER

Buying a sports car to save your midlife crisis is a cliché. Sporting a handkerchief that depicts Turnbull & Asser's archetypal customer Mr. St. James cruising in a convertible roadster with a blonde is a cheeky way to say, “I don't care.” The limited-edition Midlife Crisis Handkerchief collection also includes a Spitfire fighter plane, a chopper motorcycle and a speedboat. Of course, the purveyor of fine shirts from London's Jermyn Street will be happy to provide you with more traditional pocket square patterns like paisleys and dots, if you're not in crisis mode. ## 4 A BAR ON WHEELS—PINEL & PINEL

Because entertaining isn't static, Pinel & Pinel, the French creator of inventive, luxury trunks, has created its Malle Bar (bar trunk), a drinks center on wheels. When buckled up, it looks like a standard steamer trunk. Open it, and out folds plenty of space especially fit for storing all your bar needs: bottles and glasses (it comes with a selection of Riedel stemware included). There's an oak block drawer on which to cut garnishes and build drinks. Because it's Pinel & Pinel, there's plenty of customization available. Because it's French, there's a Champagne bowl. ## 5 BUILD-A-JET CARD—MAGELLAN JETS

Private jet travel just got easier. Not cheaper. Just easier. Magellan Jets has started a custom jet card system, to streamline its jet card business model. In 25-hour increments, you can book up to 150 hours, select the size and model jet you want to fly and then choose from a list of free perks and add-ons, from no prime-time surcharge to free upgrades to free ground transportation and catering packages. ## 6 UNTETHERED LEATHER—HANCOCK & MOORE

Leather furniture conjures thoughts of wood-paneled rooms with fireplaces—very comfortable, very staid—but not full of pizzazz. The North Carolina craftsmen Hancock & Moore are looking to change all that with their newest collection, which showcases vivid colors and arresting patterns that will leave the “stodgy and plain brown leather furniture” cliché in its dust. Among the choices are floral prints, textural surfaces, geometric pattern and a zebra-stripe look. Even their take on a traditional style features two-tone leathers.
